Smithaven Veterinary Hospital agrees to exercise due and reasonable care in boarding your pet. Unless otherwise instructed, your pet will be fed twice per day. All animals shall have water available at all times, and be housed in clean quarters. Dogs will be exercised at least twice per day.

Upon admission your pet will receive a courtesy physical examination. If any abnormalities requiring treatment are noted; you will be notified, appropriate treatment will be instituted, and you will be billed accordingly. If your pet becomes ill, we will make all attempts to contact you at the telephone numbers listed above. If the state of your pet's health is such that it reasonably demands quick action, we reserve the right to administer appropriate care within our discretion and judgment.

We cannot be responsible for personal items lost while boarding, (toys, bones, blankets, pillows, etc.).

A complimentary bath is included for pets who have been boarding for three days or more. On the day of discharge you will be called after 12 noon for a pick-up time, (this is to make sure your pet is dry at the time of discharge).
